

Boredom Problem Statement: Raven Jaime

Problem Statement:

People will always struggle with alleviating their boredom at some point. People need a way to figure out what to do with their free time when they have more than they expect.

Who is Experiencing Boredom?

Anyone with extra time on their hands that they don't know what to do with it.

What is the Problem?

The problem is that when you have nothing to do, all your assignments are done, you don't have work, and you aren't feeling your usual hobbies, you're left with nothing to do with your time, and sometimes, you can't think of anything to fill that void.

Where does the problem present itself?

The problem can present itself usually at home, or even if you're out and about, waiting for something or someone. It can happen when you're a passenger for a long drive. Almost anywhere you can feel bored.

Why does it matter?

While being bored isn't life-threatening, it's a small inconvenience that everyone has to face. If people can come up with something to alleviate their boredom more efficiently, it would be more convenient for everyone.
